

Roseate spoonbills are large pink and white birds. They hunt for food by swinging their spoon-shaped bill through shallow waters. This six inch long beak is very sensitive to touch. It allows them to feel for small fish, crabs, shrimp and water insects.